Unlike any other average 17-year-old, Goodwill Sandile Maseko known as Brvdley, was born in Lekazi, and raised in Kamhlushwa, Mpumalanga. He is a big dreamer, and aspires to be the world's greatest, determined to fulfil his vision he pursued his musical passion. Music being his passion since the tender age of nine, Brvdley's musical journey began in 2016 when he accompanied a friend to a talent show and he was put to the test to show off his talent.

His rapping skills were put to the test when he rapped his way into a producer's heart who saw it fitting to nature the young man to his way at becoming the amazing lyricist we now know. Brvdley has never looked back from that day and has been going from strength to strength. His solid hunger for being the best birthed his two EPs and several singles.

JOINING AMBITIOUZ

The young star was discovered by Ambitiouz Entertainment in May 2020 through a social media challenge where he rapped to Miss Pru's 'Price To Pay' beat using his own lyrics. Brvdley began following the award-winning recording label when its doors were opened in 2015. Being signed under the label is Brvdley's biggest achievement and a dream come true since the inception of his musical journey. He looks forward to working hard to change his life.

THE FUTURE

Brvdley draws his musical inspiration from his everyday life events and what he sees around him. His dreams include owning a studio and producing music for other artists. The up and coming rapper who is also an aspiring producer, would like to one-day work with Jamaican musician, Koffe. Other artists Brvdley looks up to include Drake and South African rapper, Nasty C.

The first Friday of March 2021 saw Brvdley release his much-awaited debut single. Fans have looked forward to that day since the 18-year-old won their hearts on Dr MaVibes's hit single, Umlilo in 2020. Brvdley's single is titled 'Nyamazane', in which he emphasises that he is a raging bull who has come for everything. The Hip-Hip song was written by Brvdley and Ndu Browns of Blaq Diamond who also helped Tweezy with producing the song.

Brvdley aims to work hard to produce good music and tick more boxes on his bucket list while on his way to greatest.
