Born in Maseru, Lesotho, Bokang Moleli fondly known as Malome Vector, crossed the border to follow his dream. The 28yr old started his journey in 2004 at the tender age of 14.

The rapper, singer, song writer and producer describes his sound as a combination of Famo (contemporary Sesotho music, which features the accordion and oil can drum) fused with Afro Pop and Hip Hop. He strongly believes in his versatile nature and does not want to be boxed to one genre. He aspires to HHP's music and lyricism as well as his peer Ntate Stunna who he has worked with on other projects. In June 2020, Malome Vector was officially introduced by Ambitiouz Entertainment with his debut single titled 'Dumelang'. The single was quickly followed by a music video which is currently on over four million views.

THE INTRO

In 2019, the Lesotho-born rapper released his second single titled 'Follow'. The single received such a great reception, that it occupied the number one spot on iTunes's top Hip Hop songs and took the second spot on all genres. With 'Dumelang' and 'Follow' still topping the charts, Malome Vector introduced another smash hit titled 'Nobody', which derived from an old struggle song of the same title. In 'Nobody', Malome Vector sang about a beautiful girl he wanted to marry. The single was released in January 2021 together with a music video that tells a story of a young man who is in love.

In 2021, Malome Vector was awarded a double platinum plaque by Ambitiouz Entertainment for Dumelang after it had exceeded seven million streams. In the same year, Dumelang was nominated for Music Video of the Year at 27th South African Music Awards. Malome Vector was also nominated for the MTV Africa Music Awards, and All Africa Music Awards. While in the celebratory mood, Malome Vector released another love-filled song titled 'Lerato' as he continued to profess his love. 'Lerato' was also released alongside a storytelling music video.

DEBUT ALBUM

In the festive season of 2021, Malome Vector released a track titled 'Enjoyment' featuring Wave Rhyder, which was quickly followed by his debut titled 'Karabo' in the beginning of 2022. The masterpiece features an array of stars like stable mates Blaq Diamond, Intaba Yase Dubai, and Wave Rhyder, long-time friend Ntate Stunna, Ubuntu Band and BET award-winner Sjava. The album's 18 tracks tell the story of Malome Vector's life, mostly his daughter.

The rapper's fans were blessed in March 2022 when he released 'Mangoane' music video, which was his album's very first music video. Some parts of the music video were shot in a kraal to put emphasis that he was marrying the overseas girl of his dreams.

The rapper is set to release more visuals as he continues to work on his fashion line as well as more music.
