Singer and Songwriter Sibahle Cele, hailing from one of the 7 Wonder Cities of the World- Durban KwaZulu Natal, had her talent recognised by her Grandfather at the tender age of three. When she was seen mimicking sounds and harmonising with the sweetest of melodies. As a musician himself who plays the piano and guitar, he then nurtured and coached the young talent to the Sbahle we now know today. Brought up in Umlazi, Sbahle, the elder sister to five siblings, she enjoyed harmonising her sweet melodic sounds throughout her home.

INFLUENCE

Growing up the sounds of Brenda Fassie and Whitney Houston surrounded her, young shy Sbahle gained confidence to want to be heard and seen. The young lady is still inspired by these Industry Greats. She also looks up to Brenda Mtambo, Kelly Khumalo, Lira and Sjava.

In 2013, when she was in grade 10, she confidently went to the front of the choir line to show off her astounding sound for all to hear. Joining jazz classes and the Afro Divas band in 2014, which was managed by a great bassist Philani Ngidi, who contributed to her confidence to singing in front of big crowds. Sbahle blossomed into her space and took it up for all to see.

FIRST LADY

After singing other Artist's songs and posting them on social media for the world to see, the song writer and singer found the break to launch herself on to the world stage. The Deeply rooted and cultural Sbahle got signed. Herself and Umuthi Records in partnership with Ambitiouz Entertainment released her amazing single titled Emlanjeni and Ngizyazifela. The two tracks did well as an introduction to the industry with the music videos reaching over 8 million views combined on YouTube.

In August 2022 she made the decision to move and get signed to Ambitiouz Entertainment and she introduces herself like never seen before with a Hip Hop ensemble alongside her new stable mates, Mlungisi and Wave Rhyder with a smash single titled iPiki.

Sbahle is here to tell the world that she will not be boxed into any genre, as the world is her stage.
